

GREAT 'DEMOCRATIC' ROW AT TOLEDO! BLOOD FLOWS FOR LECOMPTON!—The Toledo Blade contains a full account of the great row at Stockley Hall upon the occasion of an attempt to form a Douglas club. Yells, hoots, rough and tumble, bloody noses, oaths, cursings, and 'democratic' scrimmages generally, were the order of the evening. The Lecompton devil had a general howl, and the honor and wisdom of the President and 'old Ireland' were made manifest. It was an exact counterpart of the Detroit meetings:

The Times, in speaking of the meeting, says:

'Then, was there Babel and the drowning of tongues. Talk about "noise and confusion"; it was "hell let loose," as we heard one of the members of the meeting express himself. It has been suggested that the thousand years, for which according to the Apocalyptic Vision, Satan was to be bound, must have expired last night about seven o'clock; and that his Satanic majesty made his first visit after his enlargement, to Toledo! All hail! glorious Lecompton Democracy! What a proud position it occupies before the country. Who would not stick to such a party?'

Mrs. CUNNINGHAM STILL LIVES.—The world has for some time lost track of Mrs. Cunningham, of Burdell's murder and bogus baby notoriety. The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger makes her to the surface in the following paragraph:

"On Friday last she hired a house in Thirty-first street, near the Third avenue, and was moving into it when the landlord, for the first time discovered who it was that had become his tenant. Mrs. Cunningham therupon received notice to quit but she vigorously remonstrated and threatened to appeal to the law for protection. Nevertheless, next day she found other quarters, and this morning evacuated the premises in Thirty-first street.

PROBATE ORDER.

STATE OF MICHIGAN—County of Van Buren—ss—At a session of the Probate Court for the County of Van Buren helden at the Probate Office, in the village of Paw Paw, on Tuesday, the twenty-third day of March in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-eight.

Present, A. W. Nash, Judge of Probate.

In the matter of the Estate of Caleb Bartlett, deceased.

On reading and filing the petition, duly verified, of Charlotte Hangerford late wife of said deceased praying that her dower may be set off and assigned in the real estate whereof the deceased died, seized and possessed and that there may be a partition of the real estate among the heirs at law of said deceased.

Thereupon it is ordered, That Tuesday, the twentieth day of April, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, be assigned for the hearing of said petition, and that the heirs at law of said deceased, and all other persons interested in said estate, are required to appear at a session of said Court, then to be helden at the Probate Office, in the village of Paw Paw, and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted:

And it is further ordered, that said petitioner give notice to the persons interested in said estate, of the pendency thereof, by causing a copy of this order to be published in the "TRUE NORTHERNER," a newspaper printed and circulating in said county of Van Buren three successive weeks, previous to said day of hearing.

A. W. NASH,
154-3w. Judge of Probate.

Republicans, Arise! Awake! and shake off the dew-drops that glisten on your robes, and go forth to Battle and to VICTORY!!

The Town Crier.

Of the Republican Party has been postponed from Monday afternoon next, till the evening of the same day. Let every Republican, and every Democrat who repudiates the great Lecompton swindle and the unscrupulous lying, of his party leaders and party press, "be there." Nominate good men—every man be on hand at the polls—once more for principle, patriotism and constitution liberty, and the corrupt and lying Border Ruffian master and nigger-driving slaveocracy is crushed out.

The Select School advertised in another column, opened last Monday under very favorable auspices. In consequence of the building designed to be used, not being ready, it was commenced in the second story of the store formerly occupied by Messrs. Ismon, Warren & Co., where it will remain for a few weeks, and then move into its new rooms. The young ladies are educated and experienced Teachers, and will succeed.

LIGHTS AND SHADES OF MISSIONARY LIFE.—We have only had time to take a "peep at it," but judging from the many "good things" we did see, we shall not rest satisfied until we give it a thorough perusal. Call on the Rev. Mr. Pitzel and get a copy and thus become acquainted with both the book and the writer.—Price $1.00.

CRUSADER OF FREEDOM.—The ninth number of this paper, has made its appearance at this office. It rakes all sorts of "hot-shot" into the Border Ruffian ranks of Kansas. From a mere glance at it, we see that it devotes itself wholly to the interests of the Free State party. To any person wishing to be kept "posted" on Kansas matters, no better paper can be found. Terms, $2 per year; Address, JAMES REEDPATH, Diplomat, Kansas.—See prospectus in another column.

Last though not least, in the newspaper department, do the publishers of that ever-welcome sheet, the "PRINTERS' NEWS LETTER" have our hearty thanks. The March number of it, is now on our table before us. Editor's and publishers sustain your paper.

Montgomery.—Atlantic Monthly and Peterson's Magazine for April, are before us. Both filled with choice reading matter, and fully up to their high standard of reputation.

Remember, readers, that we will furnish you the NORTHERNER and Peterson's Ladies' Magazine, one year, for $2.25. The above magazine stands unequalled to any now published, in the United States. It being a monthly journal it stands "excelled by none, unequalled by few." Who would not venture for such a chance to secure a three dollar magazine and newspaper for 2.25. Who is the first to subscribe; send in your names.

A Yankee made a bet with a Dutchman that he could swallow him.—The Dutchman lay down upon the table, and the Yankee, taking his big toe in his mouth, nipped it severely.

"O you are biting me," roared the Dutchman.

"Why you old fool," said the Yankee "did you think I was going to swallow you whole?"

It issid of Father Mabilin—who, throughout his youth and early manhood, was noted for his stupidity—at the age of twenty-six he pitched against a staircase, fractured skull, was trepanned, and afterwards possessed a luminous understanding. Perhaps other stupid fellows might as well try the experiment. At any rate, no great harm could be done.

The Minnesota Post is the name of a handsome weekly newspaper, in the Swedish language, just started at Red Wing, Minnesota. It is the only paper in that language in the Territory, and of course republican in political sentiment.—There is a large Scandinavian population in this region, to whom the Post will be a welcome visitor.

Do you know the prisoner, Mr. Johnson?

Yes, to the bone.
What is his character?
Didnt know he had any.
Does he live near you?

So near that he has only spent five shillings for fire wood in eight years.

TOO FAR OFF TO TELL.—A prominent Locofoe politician was asked yesterday, when the St. Patrick procession was passing, why he was not in the ranks. "D— it," he replied, "it's too far off to election—the fellows wouldn't remember."

BUCHANAN PAPER AT CHICAGO.—The National Democrat, the new Buchanan paper at Chicago, has made its appearance, and announces in its first issue that "there is no half-way house between Democracy and its enemies."
